What did you want to be when you grew up? A builder.

Proudest career moment: When I won Builder of the Year for Polk County.

Lowest career point: When I could not work because of a health problem.

Advice: Do what you love, and do the best job you can.

Top two community activities: Vice-president, Future Builders of America; Public Relations Director for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

What do you do for fun? I love to dance, watch my kids play sports, go to the beach, look at model homes.

Favorite book: Scriptures.
